

Let's Hear It For The Girls Weekend

12:00 pm. Arrive at Bernheim Arboretum & Research Forest for lunch at Isaac's Café. Dine in their new 6000 square foot Visitor Centre, which is an A.I.A. award winning sustainable green building. It is known to be one of the greenest in the central U.S. While you are at Bernheim check out the Legends and Lore Trail. There you will hear many stories about different trees including the Serviceberry Tree, which was so named because it is the first tree to bloom in Kentucky. These blooms would let the Preachers know they could get about the hills and hollows to perform services that the winter freeze had kept them from. Your group will be able to walk the among the tree branches on Bernheim's new Canopy Tree Walk which is handicap accessible and senior friendly. 502-955-8512 www.bernheim.org.

3:30 pm. Depart for Jim Beam American Outpost, museum house, and distillery. This 200 year old landmark features the fascinating art of bourbon making as well as the Beam family history. From moonshine to modern manufacturing, your group will get a new appreciation for our nation's only native spirit. Hey! You can even try a sip. 502-543-9877.....www.jimbeam.com

5:00 pm. Check in to one of Bullitt County's fine hotels.

6:00 pm. Arrive for dinner at Hawk's View Glassblowing Art Center, Gift Shop and Café where you can watch as local artisans perform the art of glassblowing right before your eyes. If you like what you see you can purchase these items in the gift shop. Then relax in the dining area and enjoy a wonderful dinner while you continue watching the artisans on the large flat screen monitor. 502-955-1010.....www.hawksviewgallery.com
